

How helpful would each of the following be for supporting a city to send the communication routinely?

